Fees and Charges Policy

APPROVED

THE INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

TIIS charges fees for admission, tuition, Credit of Prior Learning (CPL), supplementary examination, and such other activities as determined necessary by TIIS Executive Management Committee (EMC), who is also responsible to review and approve any adjustment or amendment to fees and charges. TIIS finance team and student service team are responsible for administer the fees and charges.

1. Fee Approval Authorities

Fee Items	Fees Per Subject
Tuition Fees for International Students	EMC
Tuition Fees for Domestic Students	EMC
Enrolment Fee	EMC
Administrative and Miscellaneous Charges	EMC

2. Guiding Principles

- This policy aims at providing clarity in relation to the administration, adjustments and the collection of fees at TIIS.
- TIIS aims at providing information about fees and charges to prospective students prior to enrolment as part of its enrolment procedure.
- Fees are due and payable according to the letter of offer signed by students.
- Fees and charges might change without prior notice.
- Fees for subsequent study periods are due two weeks prior to the commencement date of the proposed trimester period. Failure to make payment by the due date might attract additional penalty fees.
- Non-payment of tuition fee might result in the cancelation of enrolment, denial of sitting for final exams and etc.

3. Specific rules for international students

1. International students on a Student Visa MUST be enrolled in a full-time basis.
2. Fees must be paid upon the acceptance of the Letter of Offer. The current fee schedule will always be placed on the TIIS website.
3. Non-payment of tuition fee might result in the cancelation of enrolment and COE, which might affect student visa of students. If a special tuition fee payment plan has been agreed and signed between TIIS and students, students are required to adhere to the payment schedule.
4. International students are required to demonstrate to the Australian Government sufficient funds to cover their studies in Australia. As such, financial hardship is not be classified as special consideration for not meeting fee payment.
5. Students are required to pay the current applicable fees which may differ from that quoted in the offer letter or on the COE. If there is any change of fees, students will be required to pay the current fee that applies from the beginning of the next study period.
